On Saturday, October 12, the Spanish Center of The Hague will host cultural, gastronomic, and musical activities to celebrate Spain's National Day.

The celebration will take place in a day with activities aimed at all audiences. The program will include the children's workshop Paint a melody and draw a story, a demonstration of ham cutting accompanied by violin music and a tasting of paella and tapas in a lively atmosphere with sevillanas and rumba.

The afternoon will continue with a flamenco show by Salud y Compañía Flamenca and a musical performance by the group Zarzamora. Finally, attendees will be able to enjoy a disco music session.
